

Host Your Next Function at The Rainbow Hotel

Located in the back streets of Fitzroy for over 140 years, about 50 metres from the thriving hub that is Brunswick Street, this hidden beauty stands tall as one of Melbourne's oldest and friendliest pubs. We pride ourselves on producing some of the best pub food in Melbourne, to go with our exceptional beer list and a gorgeous selection of Australian and international wines and spirits.

We'd love to welcome you into our historic bar, dining room, or dedicated function space for your next social or professional event.

Vibe Out In The Main Bar

If you're hosting a smaller event like a birthday dinner or leaving drinks, why not reserve a table or two in our main bar and soak in the legendary Rainbow atmosphere? The two long tables in the main bar can be reserved for groups of up to eighteen, and food and drink can be purchased directly from the bar, where you can put down a tab or let everyone sort things out for themselves.

Eat, Drink And Be Merry In The Dining Room

If you're after a more intimate space for smaller groups, our dining room is the perfect fit. With both a la carte and catering options, and drinks available at the bar, our dining room can accommodate groups of up to twenty six. You can book a table or two, or the entire room for groups of twenty-two or more. Whether you're after a relaxed meal with friends and colleagues, or a private space for a small function, we've got you covered.

A Dedicated Space For Your Private Functions And Events

If you have a large birthday, work function, wedding, or any other event for groups of thirty to eighty, come upstairs to our spacious and secluded function room. For a flat room hire fee, you get a space with your own dedicated bar and staff, access to your choice of beer, wine, and spirits, private bathrooms, a sound system for your own tunes, and the ability to hook up your own projector for photo slideshows or presentations. And there's no minimum food or drink spend — simply order as many or as few platters as you'd like from our function menu, and either set up a tab at the bar or your guests can pay as they go.

If you'd like to know more, or set up a time to come down, check out the space, and talk us through your event needs, email kat@therainbow.com.au, or give us a call at the bar.

Catering for every function

At The Rainbow, we pride ourselves on making some of the best, most diverse pub food in Melbourne. With a wide variety of flavours, and a menu that accounts for all sorts of different diets, you'll be able to ensure that all of your guests are well-fed. And our function menu gives you control over your catering. From a light snack to an epic meal, you can choose by the platter to ensure that it's just the right amount of food for your event.

And of course, for functions at the bar or in the dining room, you always have the option of ordering from our a la carte menu. Check out our website to see our latest menu.
